FRODOH WEBSITE REDESIGN

VISUAL AUDIT

What needed to change

Five observations that shaped the redesign.

01 Hidden pathways
Important sections were hard to find.

02 Everything competed
Content lacked a clear visual priority.

03 Disconnected sections
The page had no clear reading rhythm.

04 Mixed visual language
Colours and components felt inconsistent.

05 Quiet calls to action
Low contrast weakened readability and CTAs.

The opportunity
Bring clarity to a complex offering.

COMPETITIVE LANDSCAPE

Learning from the landscape

Three references. Three principles to carry forward.

01 MiQ
Navigation that guides
Consistent components and clear hierarchy make exploration intuitive.

02 Equativ
Structure that clarifies
Well-organised information helps users understand a complex offering.

03 InMobi
Positioning that connects
A strong narrative connects product value with brand identity.

DESIGN TAKEAWAY

Guide the journey. Clarify the offering. Tell a stronger story.

FRODOH / VISUAL IDENTITY

Colour, reconsidered.

The cyan blues stay.
Orange adds warmth. Lavender softens the system.

BEFORE

Familiar blues.
More considered accents.
